Answer Key

1. (2)	2. (2)	3. (4)	4. (2)	5. (4)
6. (4)	7. (2)	8. (3)	9. (3)	10. (2)

Answers and Solutions

Q:1 The correct answer is option 2 i.e. sign away.
'Signing away' means deciding to give up or let go of a right to something, like property, by signing a document.

In this situation, the person chose to sign a document to give up her right to the family property in order to avoid possible problems or disagreements.

Q:2 The correct answer is option 2 i.e. resolution.
Out of all the words mentioned in the options, the best suitable one is 'resolution' and the reason lies with the meaning of the words:

repetition: the action of repeating something that has already been said or written.

resolution: a firm decision to do or not to do something.

confession: a formal statement admitting that one is guilty of a crime.

celebration: the action of celebrating an important day or event.

Hence, the chosen option is correct.

Q:3 The correct answer is option 4 i.e. voluminous.
Souvenir is a thing that is kept as a reminder of a person, place, or event

The meaning of the options are:

Generous: showing a readiness to give more of something, especially money, than is strictly necessary or expected.

Bountiful: large in quantity; abundant.

Considerable: notably large in size, amount, or extent.

Voluminous: Having or marked by a great volume or bulk; large.

In the above-given sentence, it is clearly mentioned that a large souvenir will be released on the occasion of the World Meet.

The correct sentence will be:

A voluminous souvenir will be released on the occasion of the World Meet

Q:4 The correct answer is option 2 i.e. tedious.

As the sentence is talking about the arguments in the court, so, the word 'Tedious' would fit the context which means too long, slow, or dull; tiresome or monotonous.

According to Soli Sorabjee, listening to cases being argued in court can be tedious but there are lighter moments too.

Q:5 The correct answer is option 4 i.e. impenetrable

The meaning of the given options is as follows:

immaterial: unimportant under the circumstances; irrelevant.

immortal: living forever; never dying or decaying.

immobile: not moving; motionless.

impenetrable: impossible to pass through or enter.

Clearly, out of the given options, impenetrable is the most appropriate filler for the given blank.

Q:6 The correct answer is option 4 i.e. descriptions

The meaning of the given options is-spaces: an empty area that is available to be used.

monologues: something that tells you to want something or someone like.

arguments: a long speech by one person descriptions: a disagreement, or the process of disagreeing

According to the above given meanings 'descriptions' will be used to make the sentence meaningful both contextually and grammatically.

The correct sentence-

I read some descriptions of properties for sale on the Internet before I called the agent.

Q:7 The correct answer is Option 2 i.e. some.

The adjective 'some' fits the context as it is used with plural countable nouns and uncountable nouns.

In the given sentence, 'elephants' is plural so 'some' is the best choice.

We could see some wild elephants bathing in the river.

Q:8 The correct answer is option 3 i.e. A, the.

In the given sentence the noun road is specific, so the definite article 'the' should be used.

'A' should be used before the word cart.

A cart loaded with mangoes turned upside down on the main road.

Q:9 The correct answer is Option 3 i.e. Beware.

The sentence talks about the poor quality of foodstuff being sold in the market. Hence, the most appropriate word for the filler is beware which means be cautious and alert to risks or dangers.

Beware of adulterated foodstuff being sold in the market.

Q:10 The correct answer is Option 2 i.e. occurred.

The most appropriate word for the filler is 'occurred' which means happen; take place.

The given sentence is in the past tense form. So, the filler should be filled with a word that defines the thought process of the subject.

I should have stopped them then and there. But it never even occurred to me that I should.
