Answers and Solutions

Q:1 The correct answer is Option 2 i.e. Maintain your speed and distance, and change lanes when it's safe.

Explanation: Speeding up or slamming on your brakes can lead to dangerous situations.

Maintaining speed and distance, and changing lanes when possible, is the safest response.

Hence, the correct answer is Maintain your speed and distance, and change lanes when it's safe.

Q:2 The correct answer is Option 1 i.e. Call 911 or the emergency services number in your region.

Explanation: In medical emergencies, the first and most important step is to seek professional help by calling emergency services. Taking photos or approaching without medical knowledge can be ineffective or even harmful.

Hence, the correct answer is Call 911 or the emergency services number in your region.

Q:3 The correct answer is Option 4 i.e. Step in as a mediator and try to facilitate a calm discussion.

Explanation: Taking sides, ignoring the argument, or joining the argument can exacerbate the situation. Being a mediator and facilitating a calm discussion is the best approach to defusing the conflict.

hence, the correct answer is Step in as a mediator and try to facilitate a calm discussion.

Q:4 The correct answer is Option 2 i.e. Stay where you are and try to signal for help.

Explanation: Continuing to walk randomly can make it more difficult for search and rescue teams to find you. Staying put, signaling for help, and conserving resources are the best actions when lost in the wilderness.

Hence, the correct answer is Stay where you are and try to signal for help.

Q:5 The correct answer is Option 3 i.e. Report the loss to the local authorities and your country's embassy or consulate.

Explanation: Waiting for rescue, panhandling, or assuming a new identity are not responsible or legal actions. Reporting the loss to the authorities and embassy/consulate is the appropriate step to seek assistance.

Hence, the correct answer is Report the loss to the local authorities and your country's embassy or consulate.

Q:6 The correct answer is Option 2 i.e. Conduct a quick analysis of the remaining team's capacity and adjust project timelines accordingly.

Explanation: Hastily hiring, reassigning tasks without analysis, or delaying the project without assessing team capacity may lead to further issues. Conducting a quick analysis allows you to make informed adjustments to project timelines based on the remaining team's capacity.

Hence, the correct answer is Conduct a quick analysis of the remaining team's capacity and adjust project timelines accordingly.

Q:7 The correct answer is Option 3 i.e. Hold a team meeting to discuss the importance of collaboration and teamwork.

Explanation: Praising innovation without addressing collaboration issues, assigning individual projects, or reprimanding without discussion may not lead to improved teamwork. A team meeting allows for open communication about the importance of collaboration and fosters a more collaborative environment.

Hence, the correct answer is Hold a team meeting to discuss the importance of collaboration and teamwork.

Q:8 The correct answer is Option 2 i.e. Conduct a structured discussion to understand each team member's perspective and find common ground.

Explanation: Implementing a majority-favored strategy without discussion, ignoring preferences, or assigning decision-making without collaboration may lead to dissatisfaction. A structured discussion allows for understanding perspectives and finding a consensus.

Hence, the correct answer is to Conduct a structured discussion to understand each team member's perspective and find common ground.
